

The Search For Kingship

Key Word: Hosanna

Key Verse: When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in turmoil, asking, "Who is this?"
Matthew 21:10

Prince Agadir was sent by his father on a special journey to learn more about how to be a good king. His father said he should look at all of the kings throughout history and throughout the future and find out how he could be the best king. His father knew that one day he would die and Prince Agadir would become king. He wanted his son to do a good job.

Prince Agadir traveled in a time machine, and he visited with King Arthur from the Age of Chivalry, and he learned many good things from him. He visited with kings from hot countries and cold countries but he never found anyone that seemed to be a perfect king. Then the time machine took him to a place where a man was riding into town on a donkey and all of the children and adults were waving palm branches and shouting, "Hosanna in the highest!" and "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!" It seemed as if everyone loved this man more than any other place he had been, but he didn't really look like a king. He found out this king's name was Jesus. He followed him everywhere and learned so many wonderful things from him. He saw him do miracles and everyone around him seemed to be happier when he was around. Then it was time to return to his home.

When his father saw him he gave him a hug and asked him what he had learned. Prince Agadir looked a bit sad. "Father," he said, "I never found a perfect king to learn to be like. I found a wonderful teacher named Jesus and people there called him a king, but he didn't really act or look like a king. He didn't give orders and he didn't have a court. He was kind and gentle and loving. He didn't have any money, either, so I guess he can't have been a king."

"My son, you have done very well. You have found the one true king, Jesus. He will be with you for all of your life and you need only to do your best to be like him and you will be a great king."

Agadir knelt down and prayed, "Dear Jesus, thank you for giving me all of these great gifts, and please help me to be a good king, like you." And from then on he followed Jesus everyday.
